Happy tower montessori

We offer innovative, safe and affordable products that encourage your children to play, create and discover the world in which they live. We exist to support the learning journey through the game. Our products are designed and tested here in Australia, and we pride ourselves on our customer service and attention to detail. Our beautiful, thin learning towers are specifically designed to enhance your child's quest for independence. Step back and watch your child learn to climb up and wash his hands. Or revel in being able to cook safely with your child standing happily by his side. Our towers arrive pre-assembled, which means no sanding, painting or varnishing is required. They are easy to assemble and light enough to move around the house, which means you can use them in the kitchen, bathroom or even in the garden. Worried about your young child slipping off a stool or chair? We've got you covered: our towers even undergo safety testing according to UANZ safety standards. Our job is to focus on the details, so you can focus on quality time with your family.
